

EUROPEAN SUMP: The case of Copenhagen, Manchester, Helsinki and Frankfurt

Welcome and Exchange!

30/01/2015

ICLEI – Local Governments for Sustainability

Team Governance and Social Innovation
Partner ENDURANCE project

In Europe

- 200 members = 70 Millionen inhabitants
- 15 capital cities
- 14 cities > 1 Mio
- 85 cities > 100,000
- Also counties, provinces and regions

Establishment of enduring national and European support networks for sustainable urban mobility

Assistants to cities and regions with developing Sustainable Urban Mobility Plans (SUMPs)

Facilitating networking, mutual learning and sharing of experience.

www.epomm.eu/ENDURANCE

AGENDA

10:15-10.45	SUMP experience in Helsinki Tuire Valkonen, Transport Planner at Helsinki Region Transport
10:45-11.15	SUMP experience in Frankfurt Jens Vogel, Transport Planner at ivm GmbH (Region Frankfurt RheinMain)
11:15-11:45	Coffee
11: 45-12:15	SUMP experience in Manchester Nicola Kane, Transport Strategy Manager at Transport for Greater Manchester
12:15-12:45	SUMP experience in Copenhagen Anette Kayser, Project Manager at the Technical and Environmental Department of the City of Copenhagen
12:45-13:30	Discussion
13:30-13:45	Final remarks and closing Antoni Poveda, vicepresident of AMB, head of the Mobility and Transport Department.

